A Three-Word Instruction to Help You Enter the Heaven within

First Key Lesson: The further we move away from the present moment the nearer we come to sorrow.

Talk Takeaways

- "The Kingdom of Heaven is within." But if the Kingdom of Heaven is within, then where are you going? The journey is an interior journey. The journey is not in time. And it is not in space, so there is no distance.
- There is no separate self to get somewhere.
- The journey is within a relationship that we are already in, but are not aware of.
- What is being sought already exists within the seeker.
- Most of us are waiting for a time to come in which we will become what we imagine we need to be.
- If you are looking for something you recognize, then you might miss what you are really waiting for.
- The moment is as much waiting for you to see and share in what it will bring, as you are waiting on that moment for the same.

- We have more than a natural life. Within us is a supernatural life and light that is never not acting on what is waiting for it in the dark of our consciousness.
- Nature is not at war with what is acting upon it. So why is it that you are at war with what is acting upon you? Nature has no choice in the matter, but you do have a choice.
- "Thy Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven." Earth as a creation is incomplete. We as a creation are incomplete.
- Creation is what happens when there is a marriage between the will of earth and the Will of Heaven.
- Every moment of your life is a fractal of the whole of your life.
- Except for truly practical matters, it is a waste of time to prepare for something that only exists in your imagination.
- It is easy to see that the Divine is always completing its business in nature. Then why is it so difficult to see the same within the creation called yourself?
- The continual attempt to complete the moment is what keeps you living an incomplete life.
- This impatient nature cannot wait for anything to unfold that seems to be running counter to its plan. "In your patience possess yet your souls." The deeper meaning of patience is about suffering yourself.
- "Wait for it" is the three-word instruction to help you enter the Heaven within. Please help me wait for it.
